

Response Rate

- As of 5:00p.m. on 10/14/08:
 - 65 of 67 Counties Responded (97%)
 - 54 of the 65 Counties that responded answered all questions in the survey. (83%)

GET A PLAN!
FloridaDisaster.org

Survey Question:
In your county who does the Emergency Management
Director/Coordinator report directly to?

Survey Question:
Is your County Emergency Management
Director/Coordinator a full-time or part-time position?

Survey Question:

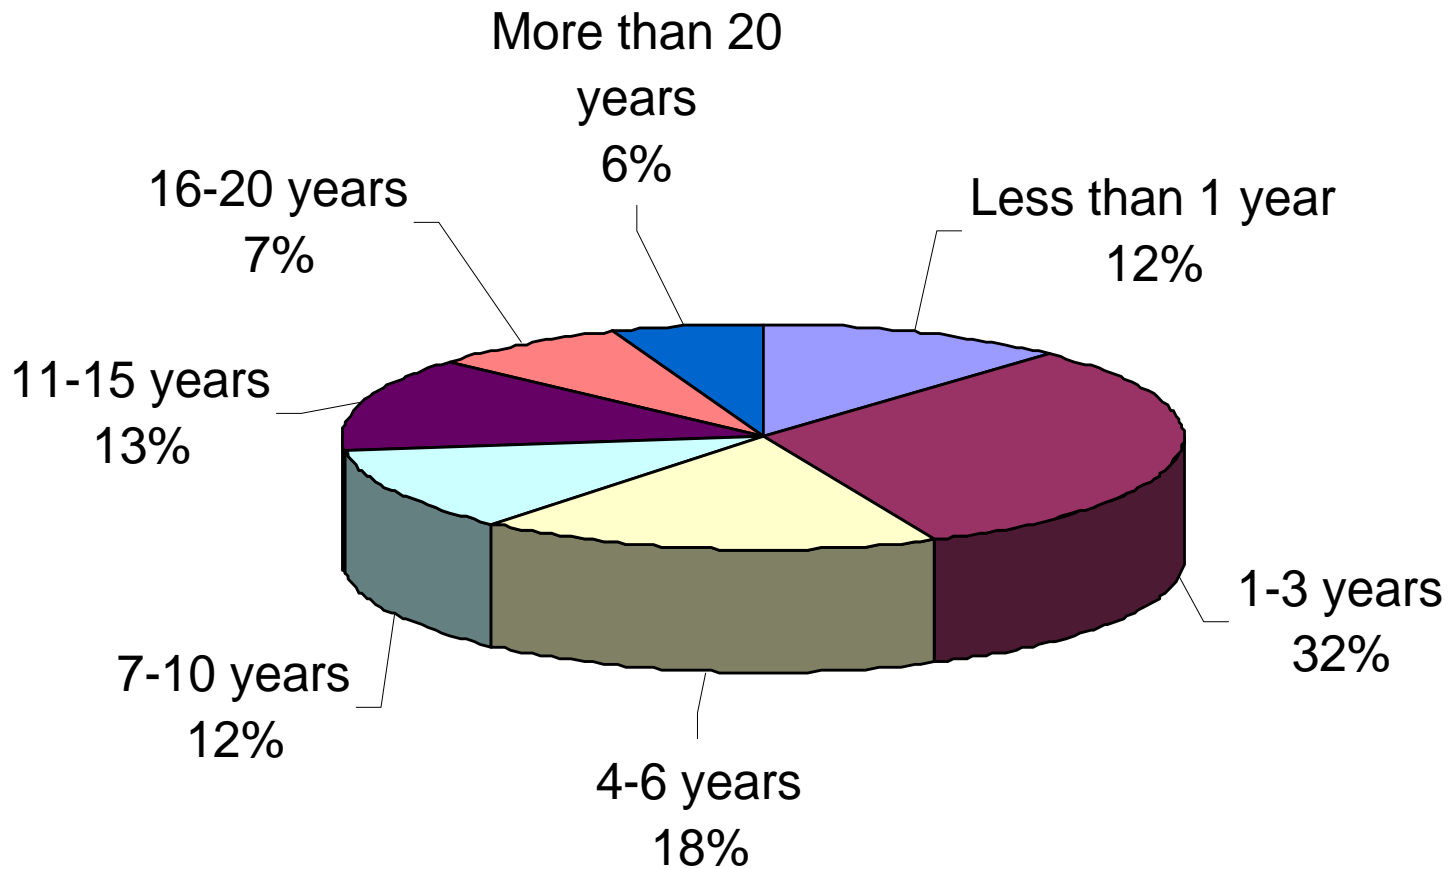

Does your County Emergency Management Director/Coordinator have other duties and job requirements that fall outside of the emergency management field?

Survey Question:
How many years of experience in the emergency management field does your County Emergency Management Director/Coordinator have?

Survey Question: How many years has your County Emergency Management Director/Coordinator held their current position?

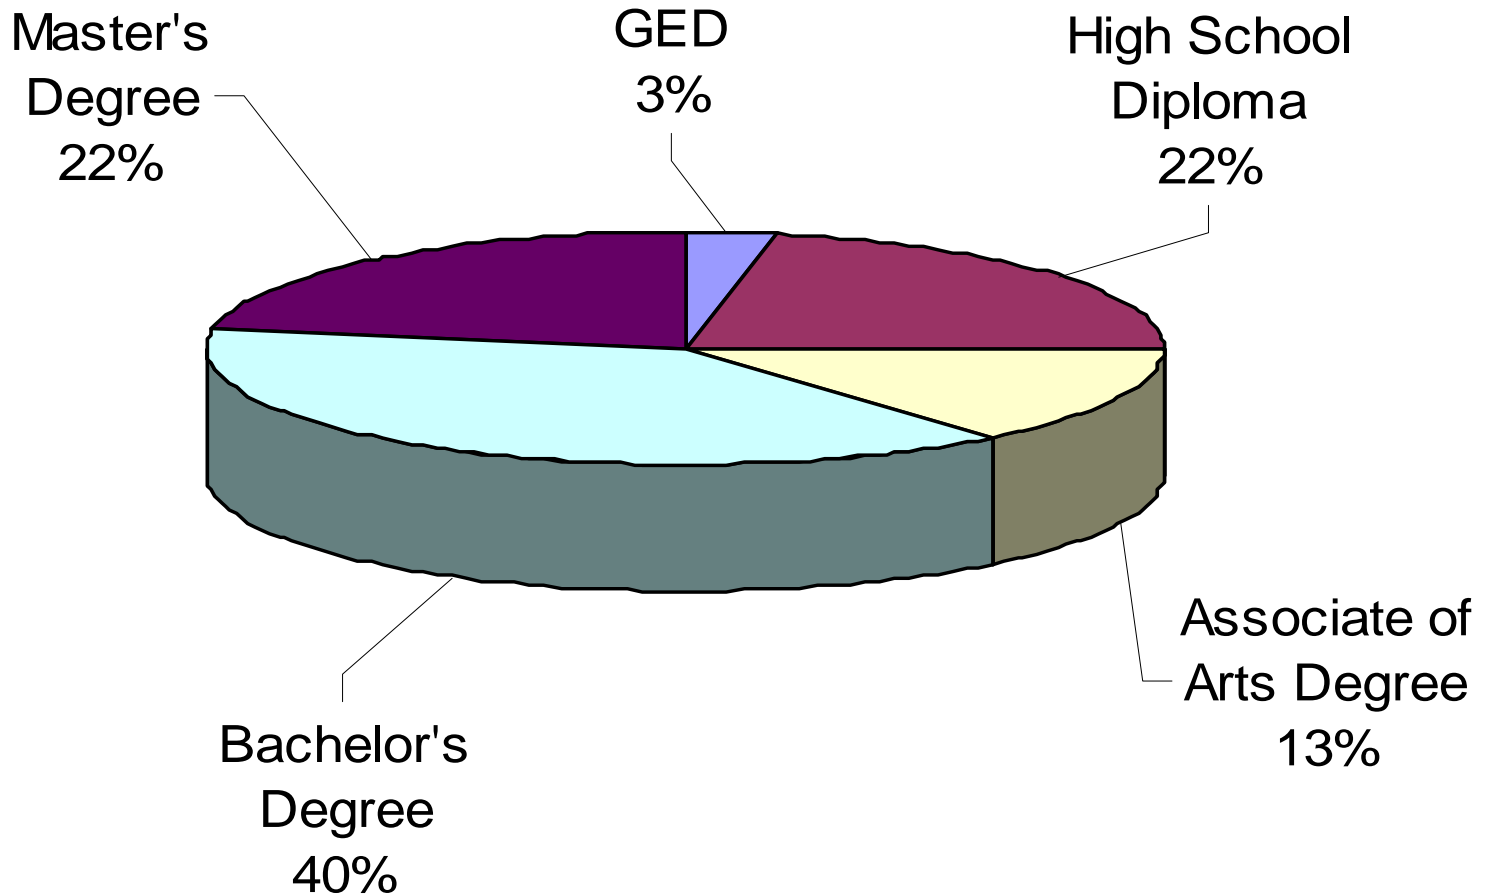

Survey Question: Please choose the current base salary range per year for your County Emergency Management Director/Coordinator

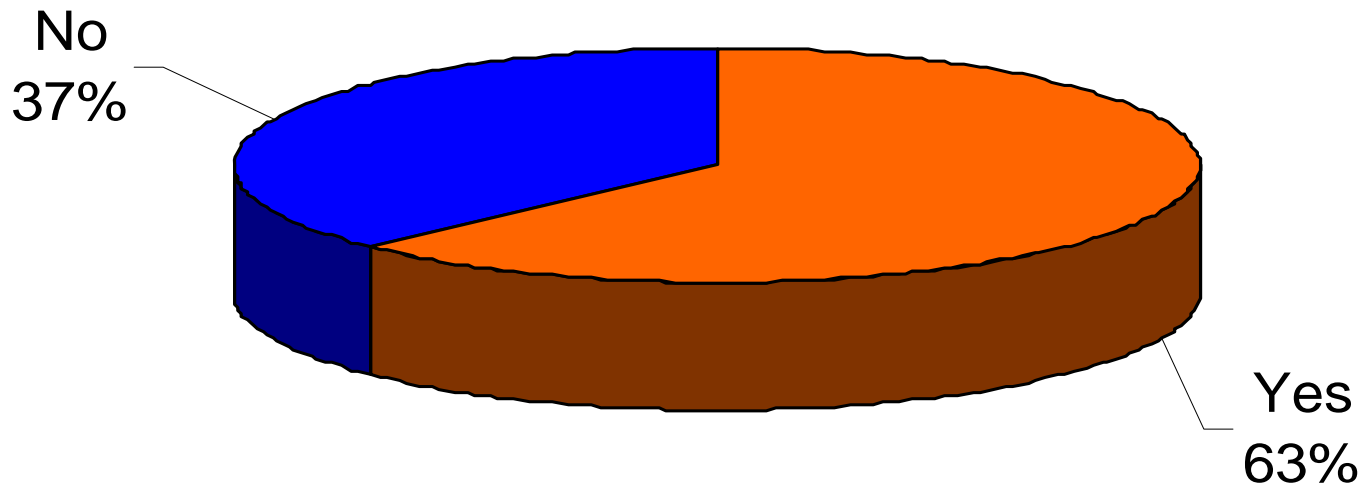

Survey Question:

Please indicate the highest level of education that your current County Emergency Management Director/Coordinator has completed.

Survey Question:

Does your county have its own minimum standards or requirements for the County Emergency Management Director/Coordinator?

Survey Question:

What do you feel should be the top legislative priority for emergency management in the State of Florida for the 2009 Legislative Session?

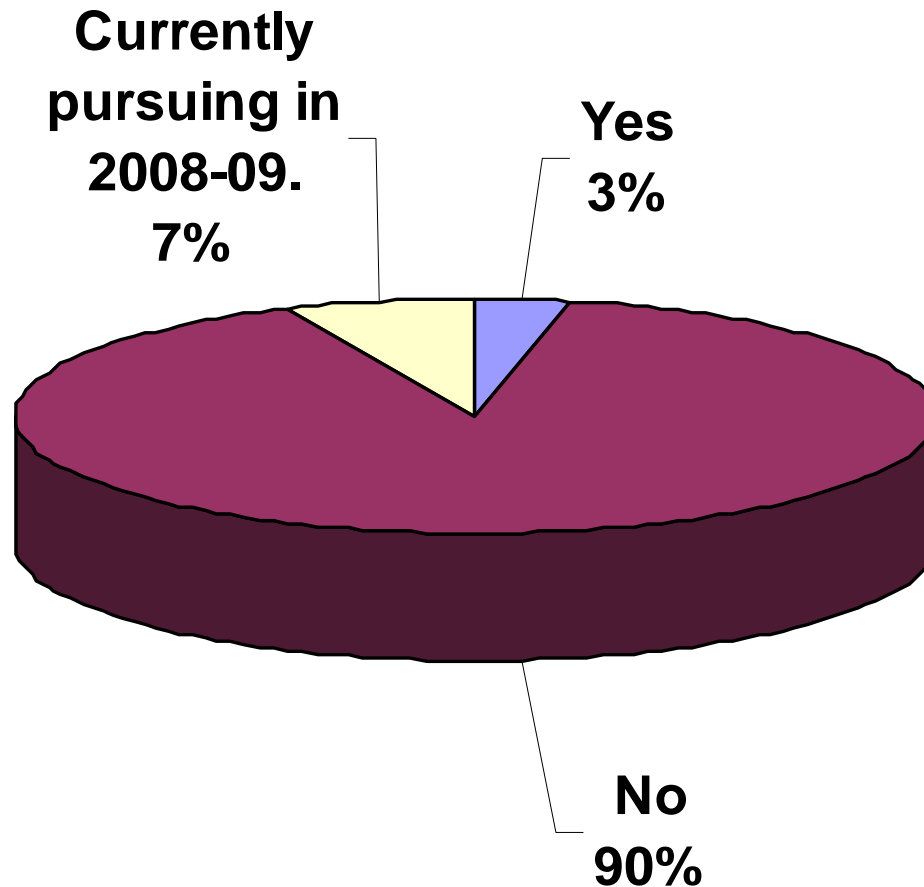

- Sampling of Answers:
 - Increased funding for County Emergency Management Agencies.
 - Special Risk Designation for Emergency Managers

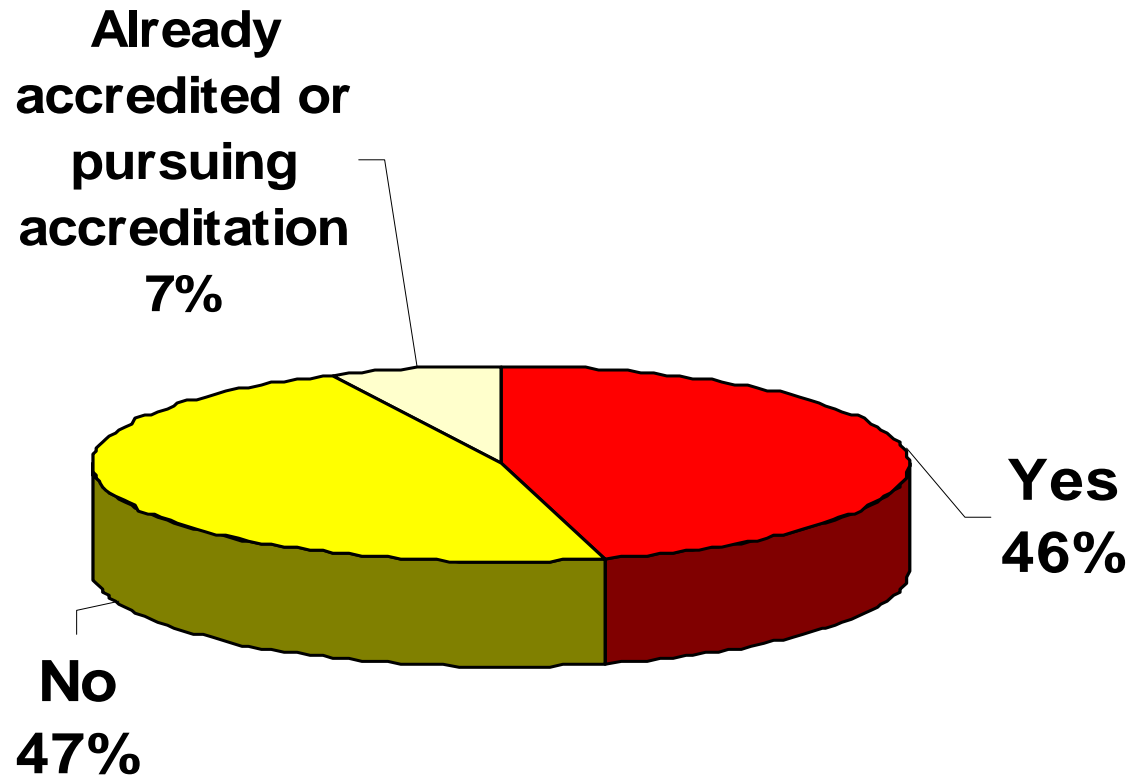

- Provide technology upgrades/redundant communications between weather field offices (WFO) and transmitter sites that broadcast emergency messages to NOAA weather radios.
- Pet friendly shelter initiative/funding.
- Adequate funding for the State DEM program.
- Disaster Housing Issues
- Give legitimacy to the EM profession by mandating certifications and standards for EM professionals.

Survey Question:
Is your county currently accredited by the Emergency Management Accreditation Program?

Survey Question:
Does your local emergency management agency intend to pursue accreditation through EMAP in the next 1-3 years?

Survey Question:
Do municipalities within your county boundaries have emergency management programs?

Survey Question:
Does your county have a public education/outreach program to educate citizens about how to prepare for disasters and their impacts?

Survey Question:
Does your county have active Community
Emergency Response Teams?

Survey Question:

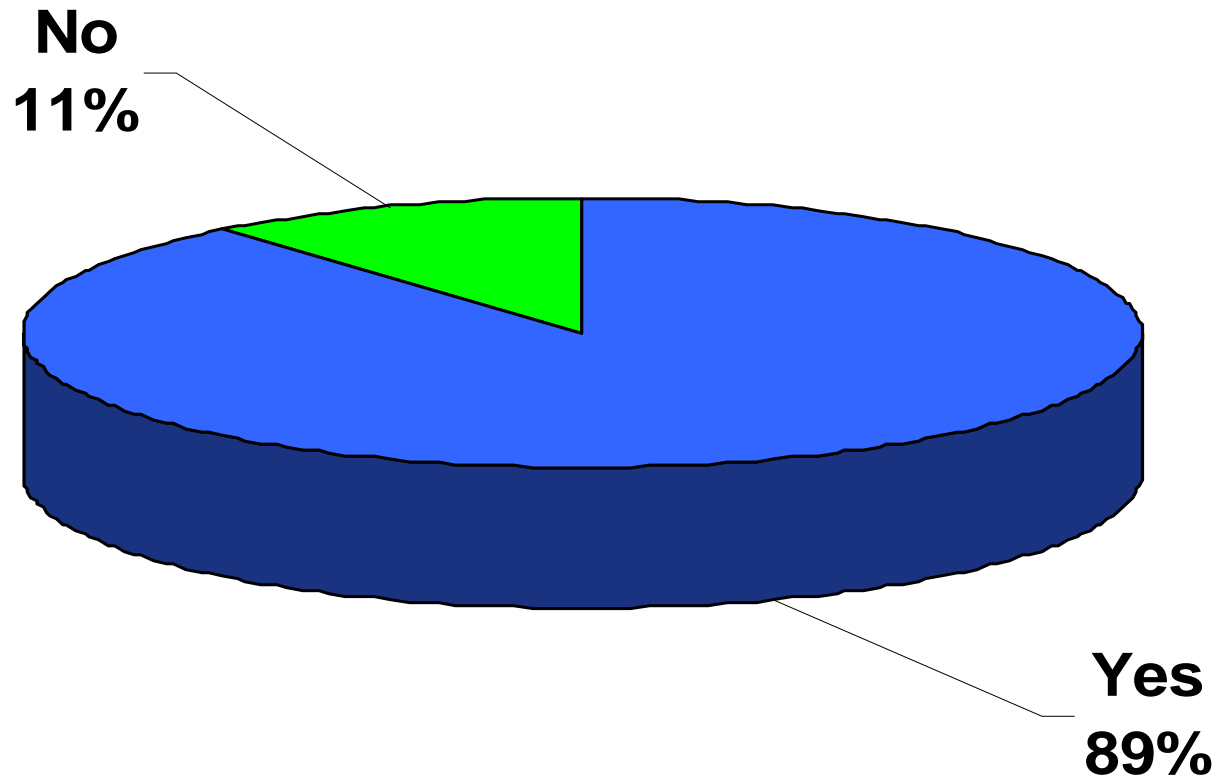

Does your county include disability groups or individuals with disabilities in emergency planning or in exercises?

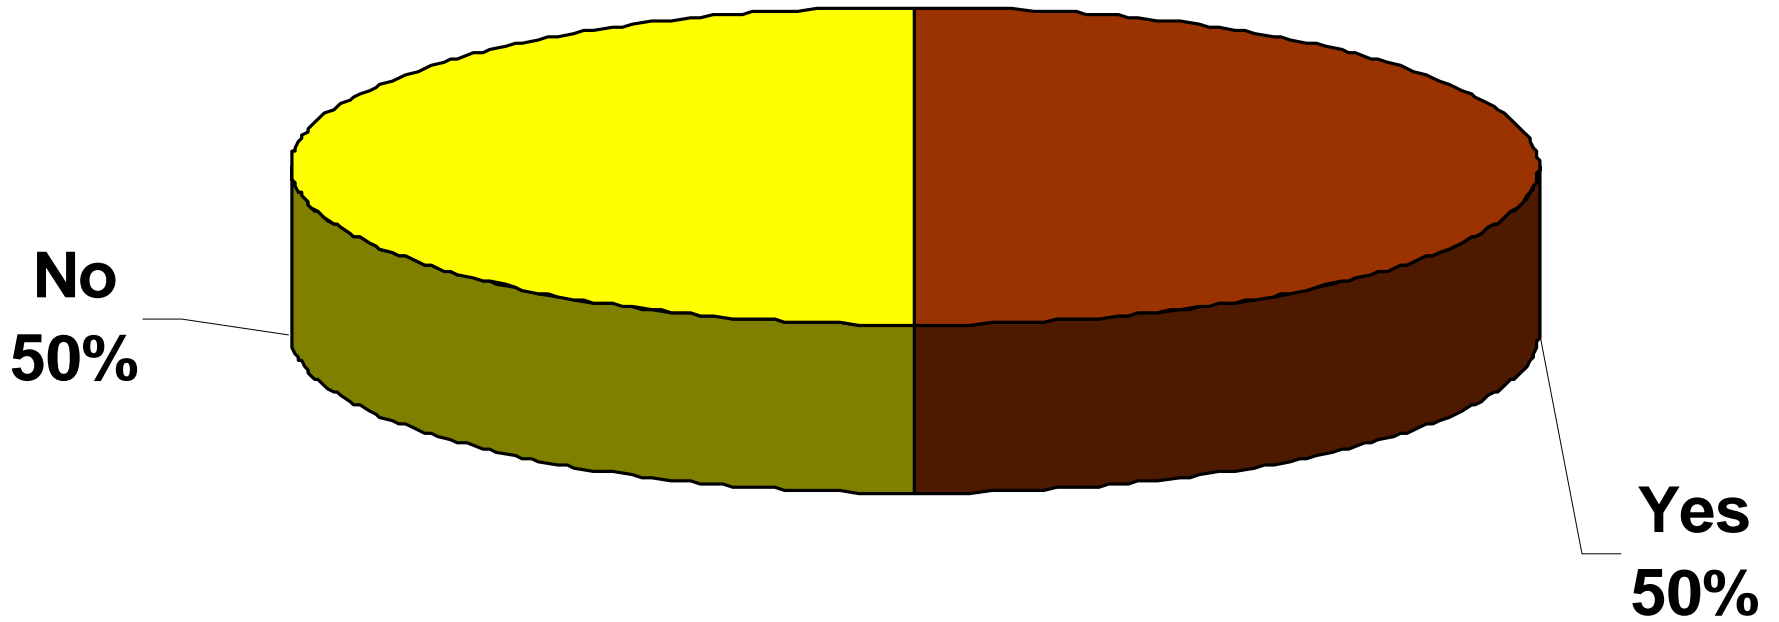

Survey Question:
Does your county preposition commodities (water, meals ready to eat, tarps, etc.) or have contracts in place to provide these items to survivors following a disaster?

Survey Question:
Does your county have an emergency plan
in place for fuel needs for vital facilities and first responder needs?

Survey Question:
Does your county have a FEMA approved
debris management plan?

Survey Question:
Does your county have Firewise Communities?

Survey Question:
Is your Emergency Operations Center organized under the Incident Command System (ICS)?

Survey Question:
Does your county's emergency support functions (ESF's) mirror those of the State?

