Mid-Week Coffee Break

February 12th, 2025

Welcome to the F-ROC Mid-Week Coffee Break!

It's warming up and Rocky and fellow Floridians are headed back to the beach!

“Thank you and the F-ROC Team for the steps you are taking in assisting local municipalities. It is very much appreciated, and we are truly excited to be on this journey!”

Key Dates

Date	Milestone
January 31, 2025	2025 Customized Abatement Plan Due
March 31, 2025	2025 Abatement Activities Due
April, 2025	2024/2025 F-ROC Final Score

Congratulations on submitting your Abatement Plans!

Abatement Plans have been submitted! Congratulations to all of you who have continued to take steps to Prepare to Recover, further improving your F-ROC score.

What's Next?

Now that abatement plans have been submitted, let's get to work, beginning abatement activities!

The last step in being prepared to recover for 2025 is completing abatement activities. Those who Prepare to Recover will continue to effectively navigate events, with the ability to work quickly to respond during an event and recover effectively following an event.

Completing your abatement activities is your last opportunity to increase your overall F-ROC score for the 2025/2026 season. Don't delay, begin Abatement activities today and set yourself up for future success.

What's New?

The F-ROC Training team just delivered a course focused on F-ROC forms in Jacksonville! If you are interested in materials that can help your organization better understand and navigate F-ROC forms, please reach out to the team by emailing us at F-ROC@em.myflorida.com

Executive Director Guthrie, along with Jacksonville Mayor Donna Deegan and Keith Powers, Director and Fire Chief of the Jacksonville Fire and Rescue Department

If you have additional questions or F-ROC experiences you would like to share, please let us know by emailing us at: F-ROC@em.myflorida.com. We are available here at FDEM and happy to help you!

And that's all for this week's Coffee Break! As always, thank you for your continued partnership and your commitment to the future of Public Assistance and recovery for Florida!
